Japan Sea

Tomari Beach

Beach with gentle waves. It is a popular spot where you can relax and play with your children.

Okuneonsen

32 Okuneonsen Aburaya honkan
33 Okuneonsen Aburaya Bekkan Nagomitei
Tomari fishing port

Niizaki Shrine

There is a legend that Jofuku, who was ordered by Qin Shi Huang to search for the elixir of immortality, arrived in Niizaki, and Jofuku is enshrined at Niizaki Shrine.

Urashima Shrine
This shrine is the birthplace of Urashima Taro and is also called Urashima Shrine or Ura Shrine. The oldest official history in Japan, "Nihon Shoki," describes the local legend of Urashima, and the tradition is still passed down in this area.

Kamanyu fisheries "Gyoko Meshi"
The "Gyoko Meshi", where you can enjoy seasonal fresh fish caught in the morning while gazing out at the sea!

Nunobiki Falls
It is called Nunobiki Falls because the water that falls from the summit looks like a white cloth has been dropped. It is a rare waterfall that can only be seen after rain or when the amount of water is abundant during the snowmelt season.

Sodeshi Rice Terrace
About 400 terraced rice fields overlook the Sea of Japan between steep mountains and the sea. The beautiful scenery of the sea, villages, and terraced rice fields has been certified as one of the 100 best Japanese terraced rice fields.

Kyogamisaki Lighthouse
It stands at 148m above sea level on the hillside of Kyogamisaki. It is also a radio lighthouse and tells ships the direction and distance of the cape.

Historic Site of Japan Heritage "Tango Daibutsu"
During the Taisho era, employees of silk mills who went out to see the sights of Tokyo fell ill with the Spanish flu, and many died after returning home. Daibutsu statue was erected in memory of him.

Enlarged view

Please check the back page for Funaya area map.

Townscape of Funaya

About 230 funaya houses are lined up along Ine. It has also been designated as an Important Preservation District for Groups of Traditional Buildings.

Ine Bay Cruise Ferry

It takes about 30 minutes to travel around Ine Bay. Please enjoy the scenery of the funaya that has walked with the sea.

Roadside Station Funaya no Sato Ine

A roadside station on a hill overlooking Ine Bay. Delicious fresh fish dishes such as kaisendon (seafood rice bowl) and yellowtail shabu (buri shabu) available only in winter!

Kyoto Miyazu Bay and Ine Bay are members of the "World's Most Beautiful Bay Club."
